FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

OPIUM—QUANTITY AND VALUE TO BE NOTED IN THE CASH BALANCE REPORTS ON THE TRANSFER OF TREASURIES FROM ONE OFFICER TO ANOTHER.

To—The Deputy Commissioners, Treasury Department, Circular No. 1481, dated 27th October 1880.

The Deputy Accountant General has the honor, agreeably to Rule 7, Chapter 3 of the Civil Account Code, to direct that in future reports of cash balance on the transfer of charge of a Treasury from one officer to another, the quantity and value of opium in the Treasury may be entered, Malwa opium being shewn separately from local opium.

RULES FOR IMPERIAL MONEY ORDER TRANSACTIONS IN TALUKS.

Circular No. 1482, dated 29th October 1880.

In order to extend to persons residing in the Taluks of Mysore the means of making remittances by Imperial Money Orders to places in British Territory, and also to enable them to cash such orders when sent to them, the following rules are prescribed :—

2. Any person wanting a Money Order at a Taluk Treasury will be supplied therefrom with the printed form of application which will be filled up by one of the Taluk Writers, if the remitter does not know English, and must be delivered there with the amount of the Money Order and the fee leviable. The Amildar will grant a receipt to the remitter in the form used for Mysore Money Orders, crediting the amount to taluk remittances, and will send the application to the District Treasury Officer, who will verify the amount shewn in the application by reference to the taluk account for the day, and having debited the total to the head of "Taluk Remittances," crediting it to that of Imperial Money Order Remittances and recording it in his Register of issues (A), will then proceed to dispose of the application in communication with the Post Master, Bangalore, in the manner laid down in para 2 of the Circular No. 1463, dated 23rd March 1880, without however giving the remitter any further receipt.

3. Imperial Money Orders payable to parties residing in any taluk will be sent by the Imperial Post Office, Bangalore, together with the usual two forms of receipt, to the Treasury Officer of the District, who having entered the order in his Register (C) will forward the documents through the anche to the address of the payee after having endorsed the money order as follows :—

To—The Amildar of

"Pay the amount of this money order to the payee named therein debiting it to "Taluk Remittances" on this voucher and taking his receipt thereon."

4. The payee will sign and give back the two separate receipts for the Money Order to the anche messenger for return to the District Treasury Officer, who will retain one and send the other to the Post Master, Bangalore. The Money Order will be paid on presentation at the Taluk Treasury and when charged in the taluk accounts the District Treasury Officer will credit the head of "Taluk Remittances," and debit Imperial Money Order Remittances in the usual way entering the order in his Register of payments (B).
